PLANNING GUIDE - The Home Depot

The 5-15% rule states that the entire kitchen project should cost no less than 5% and no more than 15% of the current value of your home. The national average is 8%. The basis of the rule is that if you spend less than 5%, there is a good chance you may be devaluing your home. If you spend more than 15%, there is a good chance you are overspending, and will not recoup your investment at a ...
